The Institute of Public Assistance (Providoria)
Lottery Rules, 1979

In exercise of the powers conferred by article 15 of the Legislative Diploma No. 1984, dated 14-4-1960, the Administrator of Goa, Daman & Diu is pleased to frame the following Rules.

1. Short Title and Commencement. — (i) These rules may be called the IPA (Providoria) Lottery Rules, 1979.

(ii) They shall come into force with effect from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions. — Unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, the terms used in these rules are defined as:

(i) "Chairman" means the Chairman of the Council of IPA (Providoria).

(ii) "Council" means the Council of IPA (Providoria).

(iii) "Director" means the Director of IPA (Providoria).

(iv) "Government" means the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu.

(v) "Institute" means the Institute of Public Assistance (Providoria).

3. Issue of Tickets. — (i) The Institute shall operate two types of draws viz. the weekly draws and the Special draws.

(ii) Special Draws shall be held on the recommendation of the Council and/or under the instructions of the Chairman in cases of urgency in aid of or for the benefit of any Institution or Fund of Social, Cultural or Charitable nature.

(iii) The Chairman will fix from time to time, the number of tickets to be issued in case of each draw and the number of series which they are to be issued.

(iv) The tickets for weekly draws shall generally be issued in the denomination of one rupee per ticket.

The tickets for special draws will be issued in the denomination of rupees two per ticket. The Council will be competent to change the value of the ticket from time to time.

4. Appointment of Agents. — (i) Any Individual or firm desiring to be appointed as Lottery Agent should apply to the Director in Form IPA-L-1.

(ii) The Director, after satisfying himself of the bonafides and financial stability, of the individual or the firm desiring to act as agent, shall with the approval of the Chairman select such individuals or firms to act as agents, and allot a quota of Lottery tickets taking into account the financial capacity, area to be covered etc., by the applicant, etc. The Director shall have power to increase or reduce the quota allotted to each agent.

(iii) The individuals or firms selected to be agents shall execute an agreement bond in form IPA-L-2. The individuals or firms thus selected shall have to pay a security deposit of five percent of the total value of the tickets allotted. While computing, the total value of the tickets of weekly issue shall be considered.

(iv) The Director shall appoint agents by issuing an appointment certificate in Form IPA-L-3.

(v) The Agent should produce the appointment certificate as and when asked for by the Director or by his representative.

(vi) The Director shall be empowered to terminate the agency if in his opinion it is found that the Agent is not fulfilling the conditions stipulated in the agreement, and included in these rules.

5. Sale of Lottery Tickets. — (i) The Lottery Tickets shall normally be made available to the Public through the authorised Agents specifically appointed under Rule 4 (iv) of these rules.

(ii) The tickets shall be sold at the Treasury of the Institute.

(iii) Each Agent shall lift the quota of tickets allotted to him in not more than three instalments. The last instalment shall be lifted not later than two days before the date of the draw.

(iv) If for any reason, any agent fails to purchase the quota of tickets allotted in full before the time limit fixed under Sub-Rule (iii) above, the Director shall be free to distribute the tickets to any other agent, institution or the public. If for any reason any part of such tickets remain unsold, he shall be liable to pay to the Institute the entire value of such tickets. If such instances are repeated, he shall be liable for termination of his agency and the security deposit shall be forfeited to the Institute. The Director shall exercise his discretionary powers in deserving cases.

(v) The Director with the approval of the Council may fix a quota of Lottery Tickets allotted to the Agents to be distributed to the handicapped and other disabled persons.

6. Mode of Payment for Sale of Lotteries. — (i) The Lottery tickets shall be sold against payment in cash or Demand Draft in favour of the Director on any Scheduled Bank or Co-operative Banks. A special facility of effecting payment by cheque shall be given to those agents, who, in the opinion of the Director enjoy outstanding financial reputation.

(ii) In case any cheque is returned by the Banks for want of funds, the agent shall be liable to pay, the Bank service charges and a fine of one percent of the value of the cheque per week of delay. In case, of such occurrence for the second time, in two months period, the fine will be raised to two percent and the bank charges. The value of the returned cheques along with the fine and bank charges shall be paid in cash at the treasury of the Institute.

(iii) If more than two cheques are returned by the Bank during the period of two months, the Agency may be terminated forthwith. While computing the period of two months, the period will be calculated from the date of issue of the first cheque referred to at 6(ii) above. The Director will use his discretion in deserving cases.

7. Draws. — (i) The Draws of the Lotteries will be held in the Lottery Hall at about 3.00 p. m. on the date specified on the ticket. In case of change of date specified in the tickets, the same will be given wide publicity in the local newspapers.

(ii) The Lottery draws will be held in public and in the presence of a panel constituted of the following members.

1. The Chairman	Chairman
2. The Director	Vice-Chairman
3. Collector of Gqa or his representative.	Member
4. Inspector General of Police or his representative	Member
5. Under Secretary of the Administrative Deptt. in the Secretariat or his representative	Member
6. Admn. - cum - Accounts Officer of the Institute	Member Secretary

In the absence of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman or any officer designated by the Vice-Chairman shall act as Chairman of the panel. The quorum of the panel will consist of not less than half of the members of the panel.

(iii) The Draws will be carried out by way of two spheres. One sphere will contain wooden balls with numbers engraved on them. The second sphere will contain wooden balls showing the prizes for each draw. The draw for the first prize will be held first. The draw for all other prizes will be held subsequently. There will be no draw for consolation prize.

8. Prizes. — (i) The Prize structure for the weekly draws will be as under:

First Prize	Twenty thousand Rupees (one)
Second Prize	One thousand Rupees (five)
Third Prize	Five hundred Rupees (twenty)
Fourth Prize	Two hundred and fifty Rupees (twenty)
Fifth Prize	One hundred Rupees (fifty)

(ii) There shall be four consolation prizes of Rupees two hundred for the number which has won the first prize in the remaining four series.

(iii) Besides the prizes mentioned at (i) and (ii) above there shall be prizes for the endings as under:

- For all the tickets having last three digits of the number of the first prize (Rupees fifty).
- For all the tickets having last two digits of the number of the first prize (Rupees ten).
- For all the tickets bearing last one digit of the number of the first prize (Rupees two).

(iv) The Council will be competent to raise the prize and to fix prize structure for special draws. In case where due to any reason, the Council is unable to meet, the Chairman will decide about the nature and quantum of prizes for any special issue referred to in Rule 3 (ii) of the Rules. The matter will have to be placed before the Council for ratification.

(v) The value of the first prize shall be printed on every ticket. The value of other prizes including the consolation prizes will be given on the list of prizes which will be issued by the Institution after the draw.

(vi) No tickets shall be eligible for more than one prize in a draw. In the event of more than one prize being won by a ticket, the ticket holder shall be entitled to the highest prize won by the ticket.

(vii) The tickets if any remaining unsold with the Provedoria will also be entitled for prizes and/or endings, such tickets shall be listed and sealed before the start of the draw. Prizes or endings if any won by the unsold tickets will form part of the revenue of the Institute.

(viii) Prizes will be paid at the Treasury of the Institute against the production of prize winning tickets. The prizes shall be claimed in the form IPA-L-5. In case of the first prize, the winner should make an application supported by the prize winning ticket and a passport size photo. The prize amount can also be claimed through any Scheduled Bank or Co-operative Bank.

(ix) A ticket which is torn or mutilated, will not ordinarily be entitled for any prize. The Director shall however, use his discretion in certain cases based on merits.

(x) The prizes shall be claimed within three months from the date of the draw. The Director shall use his discretionary powers and extend this period by one more month, if in his opinion, he finds that some circumstances beyond control prevented the claimant from claiming the prizes within three months. The prizes shall not be paid after four months.

(xi) In case any defective or duplicate numbered lottery ticket is sold by the Institute, the same shall be entitled for prize provided the lottery supervisor of the Institute certifies about the genuineness of the ticket. Prizes in such cases will be paid only after carrying out necessary investigations. In such cases, the Institute will issue an acknowledgement to the person claiming the prize. Prizes shall be paid on the production of the acknowledgement.

9. Commission to Agents.—(i) The Lottery Agents appointed under Rule (iv) of these rules shall be entitled for a commission of seventeen percent of the value of tickets purchased. The Council will determine and if necessary revise the quantum of commission from time to time. The commission will be paid at the time of sale of Lottery Tickets. It will be sufficient if the agent deducts the quantum of commission from cost of the tickets and pays the difference at the treasury of the Institute. The Agent should however, at the time of every purchase, issue a receipt (stamped if the amount exceeds Rupees twenty) for the amount of commission.

(ii) Bank Charges, fines or any other dues of the IPA (Providoria) if any can be recovered from and out of the amount of the commission payable.

10. Bonus to Agents.—(i) The Agent who had purchased from the treasury of the Institute the lottery ticket won the first prize, shall be paid a bonus to the extent of two and half percent of the value of the first prize. The bonus shall be claimed by the Agent in Form IPA-L-A.

(ii) The Council shall be competent to revise the quantum of bonus from time to time.

11. Ban on Sale of Lottery Tickets of other States.—The Government may on the recommendation of the Council ban sale of Lotteries from other States in the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu, if in its opinion, the sale of other Lotteries is prejudicial to the sale of Lotteries issued by the Institute.

12. Supersession and Savings.—(i) These rules shall supersede all the existing rules and orders on the subject.

(ii) Notwithstanding such supersession, all the agents nominated, before these rules have come into force, shall be governed by these rules from the date they come into force.

(iii) If any question arises as regards to the interpretation of these rules or any other matter not expressly provided in these rules, the matter shall be referred to the Chairman and the decision of the Chairman shall be final and binding on all concerned.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

N. D. Vengurlekar, Under Secretary (Revenue).
